

10th CGHE Annual Conference: Global Rupture?
Geopolitics, policy repair and the reimagining of
Higher Education

Day 1 Thursday 3 April
Time	Panel	Venue
10am – 11am	Opening plenary: Universities and the Climate Crisis	Seminar Room A
11am – 11.30am	Tea/coffee break	Pring's Cafe
11.30am – 1pm	Panel 1A: Transnational education: Critical perspectives under the 'new geopolitics' paradigm	Seminar Room A
	Panel 1B: Rewilding higher education – Ecological engagements in the contemporary university	Seminar Room D
	Panel 1C: Rethinking knowledge(s): Epistemic diversity in higher education and research	Seminar Room E
	Panel 1D: The 'nation' in global higher education	Seminar Room G/H
1pm – 2pm	Buffet lunch	Pring's Café
2pm – 3.30pm	Panel 2A: Reimagining International Student Mobility (ISM) Futures: 'Wish lists' from researchers, practitioners, and policymakers – What would you like to see (not) happen? (Roundtable)	Seminar Room A
	Panel 2B: If We Must Die, Our Knowledge Must Live: Resistance and Decoloniality Labor in Palestine and Lebanon Academia	Seminar Room D
	Panel 2C: The national/international interface in context of "polycrisis" and the prospect of post-neoliberal higher education	Seminar Room G/H
3.30pm – 4pm	Tea/coffee break	Pring's Café
4.30pm – 6pm	Policy roundtable: Shaping student funding worldwide: insights from research and policy	Kellogg Hub, Kellogg College (kindly sponsored by Hang Seng University)
6pm – 7.30pm	Drinks reception	Kellogg Hub, Kellogg College

10th CGHE Annual Conference: Global Rupture?
Geopolitics, policy repair and the reimagining of
Higher Education

Day 2 Friday 4 April
Time	Panel	Venue
9am – 10.30am	Panel 3A: Geopolitics and higher education in East Asia – International student mobility, research collaboration and university governance (sponsored by APHERP)	Seminar Room A
	Panel 3B: International mobility and societal change – Rethinking higher education in a divided world	Seminar Room D
	Panel 3C: Reparative higher education – Global perspectives	Seminar Room E
	Panel 3D: Knowledge production and scholarly publishing – Questions of integrity and representation	Seminar Room G/H
10.30am – 11am	Tea/coffee break	Pring's Café
11am – 12.30pm	Panel 4A: Continuities, changes and challenges for European higher education landscape – Five years of the European universities initiative	Seminar Room A
	Panel 4B: Facing the traps of decolonial critiques and opening up for other ways of existing inside/outside/beyond academia	Seminar Room D
	Panel 4C: Place-based PhDs – Influences of geo-historical location on PhD experience	Seminar Room E
	Panel 4D: Higher education and Sino-African cooperation	Seminar Room G/H
12.30pm – 1.30pm	Buffet lunch	Pring's Café
1.30pm – 3pm	Closing roundtable: Universities, geopolitics and repair	Seminar Room A
3pm – 5pm	Afternoon tours of Oxford organised by student volunteers	