

CGHE ANNUAL CONFERENCE 2022

Adam Habib

Professor Adam Habib is an academic, activist, and public intellectual. He is Director of SOAS University of London and previously VC and Principal of University of the Witwatersrand (Wits) in South Africa. He holds qualifications in Political Science from the University of Natal, Wits and City University of New York. Professor Habib is a co-founder of the African Research Universities Alliance, an affiliation of research-intensive universities on the continent. He has published numerous edited books, book chapters and journal articles over the last three decades in the thematic areas of democratisation and its consolidation in South Africa, contemporary social movements, philanthropy, inequality, giving and its impact on poverty alleviation and development, institutional reform, changing identities and their evolution in the post-apartheid era, and South Africa's role in Africa and beyond. His most recent books include South Africa's suspended revolution – Hopes and prospects and Rebels and Rage. Reflecting on #FeesMustFall.

www.cgheconference2022.com

CENTRE FOR GLOBAL HIGHER EDUCATION