

Students as global citizens, 1 February 2022

00:17:05 douglas bourn: Hi everyone. Stephanie and Tao have been doctoral students of mine and have been linked to the Development Education Research Centre:

00:17:40 Gina Oduro: Hi. Greetings from Gina Oduro of Ghana. Happy to join this webinar

00:17:57 Alison Leslie: Happy lunar new year!

00:19:08 douglas bourn: Both Tao and Stephanie are members of Academic Network of Global Education and Learning (www.angel-network.net)

00:19:59 Marta Kozłowska: Indeed, Happy New Chinese Year!

00:20:12 Monika Jaiswal-Oliver: Happy Chinese New Year!!!

00:20:54 Ann Means: Happy Chinese New Year!!

00:22:02 Simon Marginson: Yes, happy lunar new year to all! It's hope that the Year of the Tiger is diverse, harmonious, prosperous and peaceful for all people in (a de-centred) tianxia. And that we finally begin to make real progress in solving the ecological crisis that we all face.

00:22:48 Ruby Montaña: Hi everyone greetings from U Princeton USA !

00:23:07 Ad. Pratiwi S.: Happy Chinese New Year. I am from Indonesia

00:35:14 Kathryn Abell: Really interesting Xi!

00:35:24 Ann Means: Thank you Xi - fascinating research and very well presented!

00:35:47 Marta Kozłowska: Thank you - a great piece of research!

00:37:35 Simon Marginson: Colleagues store up your questions for Xi - and also think about what you want to ask Stephanie

00:39:52 Ann Means: Xi - did you have a sense from your research of how your participants see their future careers? Eg inside/outside China, type of work they plan to engage in, etc

00:43:50 Alison Leslie: Q for Xi - if I understood your findings correctly, although there were opportunities for proactive participation as global citizens in their host study abroad university, students felt less able to take these up? Did they say why this was? And what can we (as their tutors) do to enable this?

00:50:53 Marta Kozłowska: Thank you for sharing Stephanie - really interesting work and conclusions.

00:52:26 Lori Lee Wallace: Great job, Xi and Stephanie! Thank you!

00:52:50 Kathryn Abell: Thank you Stephanie, great presentation

00:54:28 Gina Oduro: Interesting projects. Need to leave for another meeting. All the best

00:57:28 Xiaozhe Cai: A question for Xi: students' motivation of studying abroad have impact on their willingness in engaging with the outside of classroom/outside of assignment development; the discipline they are in also affect their development of the awareness of concepts like Global Citizens. Have you got any findings on the links between their motivation of study abroad, their disciplines and their development?

00:59:39 Simon Marginson: more questions please!

01:01:59 douglas bourn: What do Xi Tao and Stephanie see as the cultural influences on their student sense of being a global citizen

01:06:22 Ann Means: I am involved in the early stages of a project to help Chinese students develop behavioural skills that might be helpful (eg conversational tactics etc). If anyone is interested do contact me - Dr Ann Means, means.inc@gmail.com

01:08:25 CGHE Webinars: Thank you for joining us today. A recording of this session will be on the CGHE site tomorrow morning: <https://www.researchcghe.org/events/cghe-seminar/students-as-global-citizens/>

01:09:57 CGHE Webinars: Our next webinar, 'Is 'global' higher education a friend or a foe?', will be from Simon and will take place on Thursday from 2pm (UK). You can register here: <https://www.researchcghe.org/events/cghe-seminar/is-global-higher-education-a-friend-or-a-foe/>

01:14:19 Trif Victorița: Thank you!

01:18:54 Monika Jaiswal-Oliver: @Ann lets connect as I provide the professional development workshops for International students most of my students are from China. My email is mjaiswaloliver@colum.edu

01:21:43 Joshua Ee: Thank you so much for the wonderful presentations.

01:22:09 ENZE GUO: Thanks for today's presentations.