

Do merger policies increase universities' efficiency?, 26 October 2021

00:46:29 Claire Callender: Please put your questions in the chat

00:47:20 Israel Gottschalk: are these merger universities in the same markets? we're there any market power concerns?

00:49:27 Claire Callender: Other questions please?

00:51:14 Claire Callender: What role did central or local politics play in the decision as to which universities should merge and with which institutions?

00:52:12 Ellen Hazelkorn: Do you have any information about the specific changes that have occurred within the merged universities. I think you mentioned changes in management? Can you tell us something about what happened differently to bring about improvement in efficiency?

00:57:39 Dr Reuben Nguyo: The issue of merger has been on discussion in Kenya context but stakeholders have had conflicting opinion. Is it the way to go also in developing countries?

01:08:57 Cristina Carvalho: Is the public higher education staff composed by civil servants? In the case of merger, academic and administration staffs have lost their jobs?

01:10:41 CGHE Webinars: Thank you for joining us today. A recording of this webinar will be on the CGHE site tomorrow morning: <https://www.researchcghe.org/events/cghe-seminar/do-merger-policies-increase-universities-efficiency/>

01:11:31 CGHE Webinars: Our next webinar will be Thursday, 'International student education in China: An "Island" in Internationalization?'. You can register here: <https://www.researchcghe.org/events/cghe-seminar/international-student-education-in-china-an-island-in-internationalization/>

01:13:45 Trif Victorița: Thank you!

01:14:36 Cristina Carvalho: Thank you for this interesting webinar!

01:14:36 Charito Pizarro: Thank you, Aleksei.

01:15:18 Woon Chin Yeong: Thank you Aleksei, Claire and the CGHE team. Have a good day ahead. Take care.

01:15:19 Ahmet Aypay: thank you!